

Glade McDonald

McDonald—Jarvis

Wave 14 Mar 1985

Diane Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shirlen Jarvis, Pleasant Grove, will marry Glade McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nile McDonald, Heber, Thursday, March 28.

A reception will honor the couple the same evening at the Timpanogos Stake Center, 800 North 100 West, Pleasant Grove, from 7 to 9 p.m. The event is open to all friends and relatives.

The bride-elect attended schools in Pleasant Grove and Spanish Fork and is a graduate of Pleasant Grove High School. She is employed in Provo.

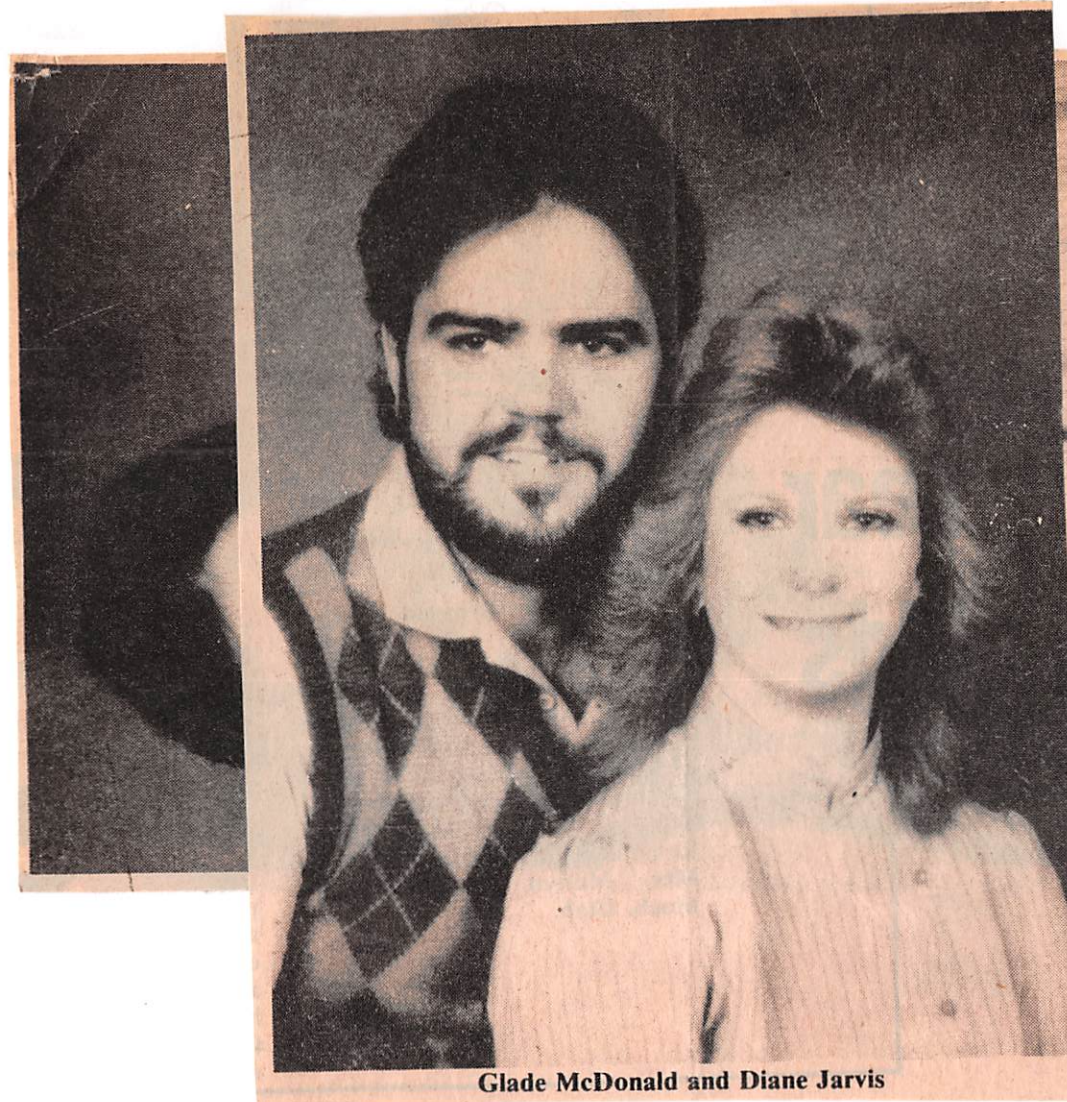

Her fiancé graduated from Wasatch High School, Heber, and he served a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Scotland, Edinburgh Mission.

Diane will be attended by Janice White as Maid of Honor and her sisters Shirley Cook and Susan Carter, with Kerri McDonald as flower girl.

Paul Mulliner and Brad Holmes will share the duties of best man.

Special guests will be grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McDonald and Mabel Anderson of Heber, and his great grandmother, Ila Montgomery of Provo.

The couple will make their first home in Provo.

Glade McDonald and Diane Jarvis

Glade McDonald and Diane Jarvis

Mr. and Mrs. Shirlen Jarvis are pleased to announce the marriage of their daughter

Diane

to

Glade McDonald

son of Mr. and Mrs. Nile McDonald on Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of March

Nineteen hundred and eighty-five and cordially invite you to a reception in their honor that same evening seven until nine

Timpanogos Stake Center

800 North 100 West

Pleasant Grove, Utah